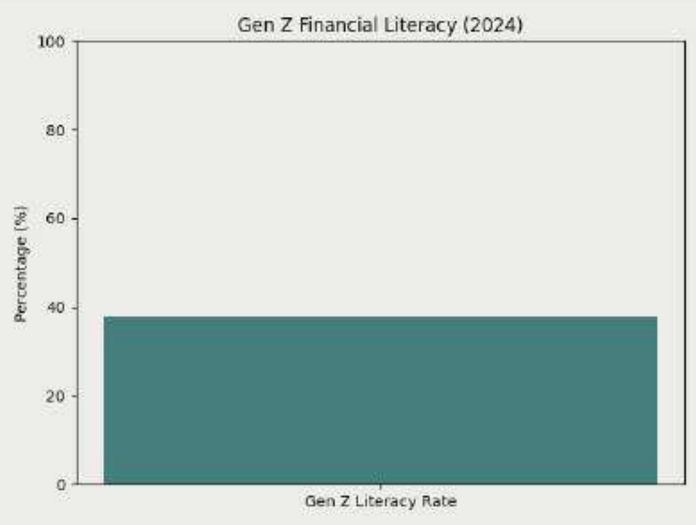
Only about 48–50% of U.S. adults are financially literate. Financial mentorship is critical to close knowledge gaps and prevent long-term economic instability.

Generational Gap in Financial Literacy

Only 38% of Generation Z can answer basic financial questions. Early mentorship is essential to build informed financial decision-making skills.



26%

Families participating in financial education programs experienced a 26% reduction in loan or bill arrears.

Financial mentorship creates a ripple effect, improving household stability and credit health.

Rising Demand for Financial Education

35 states now require personal finance courses for high school graduation—demonstrating nationwide recognition of the need for financial literacy education.

However, mentorship remains essential to translate knowledge into real-life financial stability.

TFT'S FINANCIAL MENTORSHIP MODEL

Financial Literacy Without Mentorship Is Information.
With Mentorship, It Becomes Transformation.

Mentorship turns financial knowledge into daily habits, responsible decisions, and long-term stability.

A graduate who rebuilt his life through financial education and transportation support.

Testimonial from Anthony

“Before TFT, I struggled to stay on my feet. The financial class gave me confidence, and the car the youth built gave me a way to rebuild my life. TFT helped me stand again.”

— Anthony, Debt-Free Community Graduate & Vehicle Recipient

Meet Anthony: UGM-TC's first EMP Program Graduate!

A devoted single father, Anthony worked two jobs to raise his three children in North Carolina. Life wasn't easy, but he had the love of his family. Then his children went to live with their mother in Texas. "I was on my own," he says.

Anthony still had his beloved grandmother. A devout Christian, she instilled in him a love for Jesus and a desire to help others. Before she passed away, she told him he would see his children again. Shortly after, his middle son called. Anthony dropped everything and took a bus to Texas to be near his children. "I got a job," he said, "but I didn't have a place to stay."

It was Christmas 2023 when Anthony arrived at Union Gospel Mission of Tarrant County. He spent two weeks as an overnight guest before joining the Transitional Housing Program and meeting his case manager. She encouraged him to join our Economic Mobility Pathways (EMP) Program which offered a culinary pathway. Having inherited a passion for cooking from his grandmother, Anthony felt like this could be his calling.

He embarked on a 16-week program with Taste Community Kitchen, earning a paid internship during the final eight weeks. He prepared entreés for two showcase events, impressing local restaurant owners with his expertise and creativity. After completing the internship, he was offered a job at a Wolfgang Puck restaurant.

But Anthony's heart was still at UGM-TC. When a position as a cook in our kitchen became available, Anthony jumped at the chance to give back. "I like to feed everybody that comes in. I like to make sure they have a nice, hot meal. I try to make sure they get seconds if I can," he says. "I got that from my grandmother, because she wouldn't let anybody go hungry." Anthony's crowd-pleasing dessert is his pineapple upside-down cake!

As UGM-TC's very first EMP Program graduate, today Anthony's life looks completely different from when he first walked through our doors. He has earned the American Culinary Federation Certification giving him a competitive edge and the opportunity to make a living wage. Additionally, he is the proud owner of a car and has moved into his own apartment.

It is something only the Lord could have orchestrated, through your generosity. Anthony says, "It shows that when you follow the plan God has for you, blessings come."

Partner Highlight: TFT — Tomorrow's Families Today

As part of the EMP Program, UGM-TC provides Life Learning Skills such as digital skills, principles of professionalism, and financial literacy.

One of our financial literacy partners is Broderick Taylor from Tomorrow's Families Today. Tomorrow's Families Today is a non-profit organization that provides financial education and community services to the Tarrant County community and beyond. Our partnership with TFT has been a blessing in so many ways. In addition to teaching financial literacy to our residents, they impacted Anthony's life through their partnerships.

TFT was gifted a car from Freeman Toyota and received another donated car from Steve Curry. TFT partnered with the Fort Worth ISD CTE Automotive Program to restore one vehicle out of the two donated vehicles. Instructors Justin Seely and Tim Walz at OD Wyatt High School used this project to prepare future graduates who may be interested in an automotive career.

Once the youth completed the restoration, TFT donated the vehicle to Union Gospel Mission of Tarrant County for a resident. UGM-TC was thrilled! When UGM-TC told Anthony about the gifted vehicle, he was blown away by everyone's generosity. Anthony's case manager helped him make necessary preparations to receive the vehicle like ensuring his driver's license was up to date and securing insurance. Freeman Toyota and Tomorrow's Families Today hosted a ceremony for Anthony to celebrate his success and receive this restored vehicle. We are so thankful to all involved in providing this amazing, heartfelt gift!

Subject: Statement of Gratitude

My name is C.W. Ragsdale and while in the Tarrant County Jail I was enrolled in the re-entry program. I would personally like to thank Mr. Taylor from TFT Community Organization for all his help and guidance in preparing me to re-enter back into society. His directions as to what to do and where to go for shelter assistance and help with my vital documents played a major role in my being able to get into the UGM program as a resident and to be shown how to get my driver's license, social security card, and bus passes. I'm truly grateful because with his help I had the confidence to follow the path directed by TFT Community Organization which have successfully re integrated me back into the community.. Thank you Mr. Taylor and TFT Community Organization.
